As County Go Coordinator what will I be expected to do?

While the County Commissioner leads the County this does not mean that the County Commissioner does everything herself. One of your key duties will be to support the County Commissioner and the County Executive team.

You will be part of a team of Volunteers who will help deliver the County action plan. You will be expected to attend County Executive meetings and report on your areas of work. The members of the County Executive are the trustees of the County and as such, in addition to their own areas of expertise, they will have joint responsibility for ensuring that the County is well run, financially viable and delivering on what the County is expected to do.

As County Go Coordinator your role will include;

- Helping volunteers to make the most of GO (Guiding Organiser) Girlguiding's membership database which is used to manage information about our members and volunteers
- Acting as the first point of contact for GO queries in your county
- Promoting GO as a tool and work with the commissioners and other volunteers to help users become confident with the system
- Checking the information on GO is correct and up-to-date and making sure data cleansing happens regularly
- Using Go to run data reports
- Keeping up-to-date with changes in policies, procedures and systems

What training and support will be available?

Training available to you will include:

- A thorough induction into your role
- Training to help to develop skills and abilities to perform the role
- On going support and development from fellow volunteers, including the County Commissioner and the County Team.
- Girlguiding Ulster or your County will reimburse agreed expenses

What skills, knowledge and experience do you need?

Being a great County GO Coordinator involves lots of different skills, but some of the most essential are:

- People skills - being supportive, open, approachable
- High degree of personal integrity and ability to deal with confidential information
- Experience of using IT systems like databases and Excel spreadsheets with good attention to detail
- Ability to work as part of a team with good communication and listening skills- to problem solve and share ideas
- Time management skills – getting things done efficiently and planning

What will be the benefits to me through taking on the role of County GO Coordinator?

Taking on the role of County GO Coordinator is a great way of learning new skills such as teamwork, leadership skills, budgeting, time management, communication and motivation. If you are in employment then these are also skills which employers want to see and would look great on your CV and make you stand out from other applicants when applying for a new job or promotion.

For those with a large skill set from employment/previous experience, this is a great opportunity for you to use your skills to lead and motivate others sharing your expertise, taking the County forward as well as empowering others to be able to take on this and other key roles in the future.

Overall, this is a great opportunity to do something valuable in your community, meet and work with new people, learn new skills and most importantly have lots of fun!
