

COUNTY INTERNATIONAL ADVISER

role information

The County International Adviser role is an exciting opportunity to be part of the County team of volunteers to deliver good guiding in your County and to ensure that girls have amazing opportunities. This is for a term of 3 years and is a Girlguiding Ulster County Commissioner appointment. You will be expected to attend County Executive along with any ad hoc meetings as required.

As County International Adviser what will I be expected to do?

While the County Commissioner leads the County this does not mean that the County Commissioner does everything herself. One of your key duties will be to support the County Commissioner and the County Executive team by promoting activities in their County which open the eyes of members to our unique worldwide organisation.

You will be part of a team of Volunteers who will help deliver the County action plan. You will be expected to attend County Executive meetings and report on your areas of work. The members of the County Executive are the trustees of the County and as such, in addition to their own areas of expertise, they will have joint responsibility for ensuring that the County is well run, financially viable and delivering on what the County is expected to do.

As County International Adviser your role will include;

- Working with other International Advisers at different levels, to encourage Leaders to offer international opportunities to young members and provide support
- Set a calendar of international activities for the County and offer a range of international guiding activities that broaden the horizons of members and offer an appropriate level of challenge
- Gather and promote ideas to support those fundraising for international trips and set and manage a budget for international activities organised at County level
- Administering any applicable training or qualifications in your area of responsibility
- Collate statistics on members from the County who are traveling abroad and report these to the GGU and collate reports from international travellers for use in promoting international opportunities
- Keeping up-to-date with new resources and programme initiatives and use and cascade information as appropriate

What training and support will be available?

Training available to you will include:

- A thorough induction into your role
- Training to help to develop skills and abilities to perform the role
- On-going support and development from fellow volunteers, including the County Commissioner and the County Team.
- Girlguiding Ulster or your County will reimburse agreed expenses

What skills, knowledge and experience do you need?

Being a great County International Adviser involves lots of different skills, but some of the most essential are:

- People skills - being supportive, open, approachable
- Creative and enthusiastic
- Ability to build relationships with stakeholders including potential funders and other supporters
- Ability to work as part of a team with good communication and listening skills- to problem solve and share ideas
- Time management skills – getting things done efficiently and planning

role information

What will be the benefits to me through taking on the role of County International Adviser ?

Taking on the role of County International Adviser is a great way of learning new skills such as teamwork, leadership skills, budgeting, time management, communication and motivation. If you are in employment then these are also skills which employers want to see and would look great on your CV and make you stand out from other applicants when applying for a new job or promotion.

For those with a large skill set from employment/previous experience, this is a great opportunity for you to use your skills to lead and motivate others sharing your expertise, taking the County forward as well as empowering others to be able to take on this and other key roles in the future.

Overall, this is a great opportunity to do something valuable in your community, meet and work with new people, learn new skills and most importantly have lots of fun!
